of diverse legal professionals

June 3-9, 2012

The Journey to J.D. program at the University of Kansas School of Law...

- encourages students to attend college and pursue a law degree, and explores tools to succeed at both.
- gives students a basic understanding of the legal system.
- allows high school students to learn from current law students.
- provides opportunities to meet alumni from all fields of law, including attorneys, judges and business leaders.
- teaches interviewing skills.
- enables students to experience a college campus and meet peers from across Kansas.

How to apply

Students interested in applying for Journey to J.D. should request an application packet from their school counselor or download materials at www.law.ku.edu/journeytojd. In addition to a completed application form, students must supply:

- an essay explaining their interest in the program.
 - a personal statement.
 - a list of accomplishments.
- a signed consent/release of liability form.
- report/grade card.
- one letter of recommendation from a nonfamily member.

Students selected for the program must pay a nonrefundable $50 deposit to reserve their spot. Students may request a fee waiver if this presents a financial hardship.
