STUDENTS EXCEL IN INTERNATIONAL TRADE LAW ARENA

Two third year KU Law students have accepted highly-coveted two year federal clerkships with the United States Court of International Trade (CIT) in New York. Devin Sikes will be clerking for Judge Judith Barzilay. John Foote will be clerking for Judge Gregory Carmen.

Beau Jackson, a second year student and President of the International Law Society, has accepted a summer internship on the Trade Subcommittee of the House Ways and Means Committee.

KU Law students, Justin Waggoner and Owen Grieb, swept the competition with a first and second place finish respectively in the Andrew P. Vance Memorial International Trade and Customs Law Writing Competition sponsored by the Customs & International Trade Bar Association and Brooklyn Law School.
