books and monographs

(organized by theme and significance)

CHINA'S LEGAL SOUL: THE CHINESE LEGAL IDENTITY IN HISTORICAL CONTEXT (Carolina Academic Press, 2009). A central aim of this book is to explore modern China's law – and particularly its 30-year legal reform effort (1979-2009) – against the backdrop of the highly sophisticated dynastic legal tradition that collapsed a century ago. Special emphasis is placed on issues revolving around the rule of law and ideological foundations for today's Chinese society.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMIC LAW (Carolina Academic Press, 2008). This book surveys the network of norms governing business organizations, commercial sales, banking, insurance, employment, intellectual property rights, business competition, bankruptcy, environmental protection, accounting, tax, and more. In doing so, it explains certain basic concepts of business and economic law that hold true in most countries around the world, despite the diversity of legal systems and ideologies.

LOSING THE GLOBAL DEVELOPMENT WAR: A CONTEMPORARY CRITIQUE OF THE IMF, THE WORLD BANK, AND THE WTO (Brill-Nijhoff, 2008). Building on earlier scholarship, this text contributes to the debate over globalization, and particularly over the role of the International Monetary Fund, the World Trade Organization, and the World Bank. The book is designed to reach policy-makers by bringing to the general reading public a broader understanding of those institutions and how they can be intelligently viewed and effectively harnessed.

GLOBAL BUSINESS LAW: PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICE OF INTERNATIONAL COMMERCE AND INVESTMENT (Carolina Academic Press, 2006). This is a treatise designed for students and practitioners of international business transactions. It is accompanied by an annotated documents supplement titled HANDBOOK FOR GLOBAL BUSINESS LAW: TREATIES, STATUTES, GUIDELINES, SAMPLES, AND OTHER MATERIALS ON INTERNATIONAL COMMERCE AND INVESTMENT. It is also accompanied by a Teacher's Manual.

LAW CODES IN DYNASTIC CHINA: A SYNOPSIS OF CHINESE LEGAL HISTORY IN THE THIRTY CENTURIES FROM ZHOU TO QING (Carolina Academic Press, 2005) (co-authored with Yanping Wang). This book surveys the sweep of China's legal tradition as viewed from the perspective of one central theme: legal codification. The book aims to contribute to the professional academic literature in the area and to bridge the gaps in the approaches taken by historians, China experts, and lawyers.

THE FUTURE OF THE GLOBAL ECONOMIC ORGANIZATIONS: AN EVALUATION OF CRITICISMS LEVELED AT THE IMF, THE MULTILATERAL DEVELOPMENT BANKS, AND THE WTO (Transnational Publishers, 2005). This analytical monograph explores both the record and the prospects of the global economic institutions by examining about two dozen specific criticisms directed at those institutions. Reflecting a quarter-century of work with international organizations, the book offers specific recommendations for their future.

THE ASIAN DEVELOPMENT BANK [appearing as a monograph in the INTERNATIONAL ENCYCLOPAEDIA OF LAWS series on INTERGOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS] (Kluwer Law International, 2d edition, 2008). This book offers a bird's-eye view of the ideological, historical, financial, operational, institutional, and legal aspects of what is widely regarded as the premier regional development bank. By providing extensive, authoritative factual information about that institution, the book establishes the foundation for more evaluative work.

PREVENTING FINANCIAL CHAOS: AN INTERNATIONAL GUIDE TO LEGAL RULES AND OPERATIONAL PROCEDURES FOR HANDLING INSOLVENT BANKS (Kluwer Law International, 2000) (co-authored with Robert Lee Ramsey). Drawn from experience in both the legal and the operational side of banking law practice in developing countries, this book offers both how-to explanations and normative recommendations about a central problem in many such countries – risks posed by weak banking systems.

ECONOMIC LAW TOPICS AND CURRICULUM (University of Wisconsin, 2007). This is the substantially revised second edition of a book first published in Bahasa Indonesia in 1998 under joint authority of the Indonesian Economic Law and Improved Procurement Systems (“ELIPS”) Project and the University of Indonesia Law Faculty. The revised edition, for use (like the first one) in Indonesian law schools, is published in both English (in which Head wrote it) and Bahasa Indonesia.

A GENERAL INTRODUCTION TO ECONOMIC LAW (University of Wisconsin, 2007). This is the second edition of a book first published in both English and Bahasa Indonesia in 1997 under the joint authority of the Indonesian “ELIPS” Project (see above) and the University of Indonesia Law Faculty. The revised edition, like the first one, is designed primarily for use in Indonesian law schools.
