YOUR SUPPORT MATTERS

If you're a KU Law alumnus, you probably remember toiling for hours on end in the Wheat Law Library. It's where you honed the legal research skills that still benefit you in the practice of law. If you're a lawyer, scholar or individual who needs access to legal information in Lawrence or elsewhere in the state, the library is your most comprehensive source of research tools under one roof. Your support through the Friends of the KU Wheat Law Library is essential in continuing to make these resources available to students, the legal community, the people of Kansas and you. Responsive, high-quality library service requires a comprehensive, up-to-date collection of legal materials, an experienced and highly qualified staff, and a technological infrastructure capable of fast and accurate information retrieval and dissemination. By joining the Friends of the Wheat Law Library, you can help us maintain and improve the variety of resources we provide.

JOIN THE FRIENDS

As the LARGEST and OLDEST law library in Kansas, the Wheat Law Library is an integral part of the University of Kansas School of Law. It serves the law school and university community in legal and interdisciplinary scholarly pursuits. It also provides attorneys, judges and the general public with access to legal information.

The Friends organization is dedicated to supporting the library's mission.

Private support helps the library COLLECT and PRESERVE Kansas, national and international legal documents; TEACH legal information literacy; and SERVE as a legal information gateway by providing access to sources beyond the physical collection.

The library houses more than 350,000 volumes and a full range of advanced electronic research tools. Its 13 experienced staff members are available seven days a week to provide you EXCELLENT, RESPONSIVE SERVICE.

“ The law library has been a valuable resource for our firm.

We use the library frequently, and the staff has always been helpful. ”
